Hot Box For a Boy Near the Asylum. A youth named Herschel Hays was painfully burned Wednesday afternoon in a field near the Asylum. He was alone in a field and had a handful of loose matches in his trousers' pocket with his pocket knife. By some means, the matches were ignited and the boy's clothing set on fire. He vainly tried to put out the flames, burning his hands severely, and then started in a run for a pond 200 or 300 yards away. He reached the pond and plunged in just in time to save himself. He was painfully burned about the legs and body, but his injuries are not dangerous.	Crowd From Pembroke and Some From This City. Dr. J. R. Dark Tobacco.

W. H. Jesup & Co.

The Planters Hardware Co., was recently indicted at Elkton because the Fairview Review failed to use the word "Incorporated" in an advertisement placed in that paper. Mr. W. S. Harned, manager of the company, went to Elkton yesterday to attend the trial of the case, accompanied by his attorney, Judge W. T. Fowler. Propositions to compromise the case were refused by Mr. Harned. This is getting the business of a commonwealth's attorney down to a pretty fine point.

Madisonville Fair.

The Great Hopkins county fair to be held at Madisonville Aug. 1st to 5th inclusive will be the most interesting exhibition that has ever been held in Western Kentucky. A large number of horses have already been shipped in from the Delmar track, St. Louis, which has been closed by order of Governor Folk. In addition to the races and usual displays there will be a large number of free acts presented in front of the grand stand that far surpass the average circus.

GREAT TOBACCO RALLY.

Three Congressmen Expected to Be On Hand and Make Speeches.

The barbecue at Gracey on Thursday, August 3d, will be the biggest thing of its kind for many years. Messrs. W. J. Hopson and T. J. Hammonds, the committee to make all arrangements for feeding the thousands who will be present, are sparing no efforts to have everything ready for the great event. Better men for that work could not have been selected and all may rest assured that they will have the time of their lives.

A splendid brass band has been engaged for the occasion and reduced rates will be given by the railroads. A special invitation is extended to the tobacco growers of Christian, Trigg and adjoining counties. Go and induce your neighbors to go with you.

This event is one of the greatest importance to farmers and no one should fail to be there. The Tobacco Growers' Association is desirous that the farmers of this section should be thoroughly informed as to the plans of the association and as to the best manner of disposing of their tobacco at a remunerative price. If there ever was a time when the growers should be informed it is now. It is the best opportunity they will ever have and all should abandon everything for one day and turn out en masse. Nothing will pay better and everybody is invited.

READY TO ANSWER

Revenue Agent Lucas Wants
to Settle out of Court.

Four hundred notices were sent out to citizens of the city and county by revenue agent Lucas that they were owing taxes for several years past, and that he would hear complaints at the County Clerk's office from July 20 to August 3d to hear complaints. He has been quite busy answering questions but still has plenty of time to wait on all.

He is desirous of making a settlement without the expense of court proceedings. The people find themselves up against a stone wall and are bothered about how to get over it or get around it. It is pretty safe to say that Mr. Lucas is about the "most unpopular man in this neck of the woods at this time." Several large corporations are included in his list of alleged delinquents. Mr. Lucas is making things interesting for the people, but most of them have a card up their sleeve and think they will win out.

Sold Out.

W. H. Blades the confectioner and baker, on Main street, has sold out his establishment to Messrs. Laurence Baker and W. S. Harris. Mr. Blades, we understand, will go on the road for Chambers & Co., of Clarksville.

MANAGER HUME HEARD FROM.

Says Mysterious Mr. Wilder
is Unknown to Him.

HAS NO KNOWLEDGE.

Does Not Think the Letter Writer is one of His Men.

At last General Manager Leland Hume, of the Cumberland Company, has been heard from, from away up in New York where he is taking his vacation.

His ignorance of who and what Richard Wilder is and why his letters were written to this county is as dense as was President Caldwell's on the same subject. He too denies him thrice. Don't know him, don't know whether he works for him or not and knows nothing of the truth of what he says. Here is his letter:

Lakewood, N. Y., July 17.
MR. R. E. COOPER, President
Hopkinsville Home Tel. Co.,
Hopkinsville, Ky.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of the 14th, forwarded to me from Nashville, I have to say that the writer is unknown to me, neither do I believe that he was ever in our employ. As to the truth of his statements, I have no knowledge.

Perhaps he is an independent man who feels that he has been wronged.

Yours,

LELAND HUME, A. G. M.

Perhaps we may be able to enlighten Mr. Hume next week. Watch and wait.

ALL OVER WITH THE HOME TEAM

Has Thrown Up the Sponge and Players Have Been Released.

FARNBAKER'S REVENGE

A New League Formed With Only One Kentucky City.

The Directors of the Hopkinsville Baseball Association have decided to submit to their expulsion from the K. I. T. League without going into the courts. The meeting at which the club was dropped was a rump affair, the only authority for it being a resolution empowering Farnbaker to settle the Henderson trouble "as he saw fit." He saw fit to drop out two teams instead of to take in a new one in place of Henderson.

Preparations were made to resist the dropping out in the courts, but it was decided after consultation that the sensible course would be to submit, since the sale of the park has made it very uncertain whether the season could have been played out or not.

The Farnbaker crowd agreed to refund the guarantee deposit of $200 or $200, which enabled the association to square up all its accounts to July 19th and quit business.

The players were all given releases and settled with in full. Other minor claims can be paid as soon as some unpaid subscriptions are collected.

Thus ends the baseball organization in Hopkinsville. It is a complete wiping out of professional ball in the city. Hereafter there will be no park, no team and nothing to arouse enthusiasm or to act as an incentive to organization.

A new league has been organized and a new schedule running to Oct. 4 will be arranged at once. New officers will be elected and Farnbaker will of course be crowned as King IT.

FROM CERULEAN.

Moonlight Given at Home of Dr. Felix.

Cerulean, Springs, Ky., July 20.—The weather is very warm just now.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wood, who has been quite sick, is improving.

Misses Mary Hopson and Audrey Blakeley, who have been visiting Mrs. Will Turner, returned home Sunday.

The moonlight which was given Saturday night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Felix, was quite a success and was largely attended.

Miss Susie Calhoun, of Hopkinsville, is visiting her friend, Miss Turner.

Mrs. H. H. Baker, who has been very sick, is improving.

Master Cook Thom made quite a flying trip to Hopkinsville last Saturday.

Rudolph, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elliott, is quite sick.

Miss Mary Ellen Pursley and little brothers, of Hopkinsville, have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Bob Elliott, at Cerulean.

Mr. William Elliott is quite sick with fever. "BABY CHILD."

ANOTHER BANK

Will Make Considerable Changes.

The Bank of Hopkinsville will make a considerable change in its building next spring. Whilst the rear part of the present building is large enough, the lobby is entirely too small. The changes contemplated will give all the lobby room necessary and furnish more light. The fact that contractors now have as much work as they can complete by the end of the building season is one reason for postponing the work until next spring.

BOOK COMPANY

Loses $10,000 In Case At Glasgow

Glasgow, Ky., July 18.—County Supt. W. C. Turner yesterday secured a verdict for $10,000 against the B. F. Johnson Publishing Company for alleged violation of its contract, by the terms of which it agreed to pay to the common schools of Barren County $10,000 if the books used in this county published by it were sold any cheaper elsewhere. Turner charged that the books were sold for a less price in South Carolina. The case will be appealed.

TOMATOES GO UP.

Horses Frightened and Ran Away.

When the 5:18 train came in Thursday afternoon two horses attached to buggies became frightened and "lit out." One of the horses made a clean run, but the other got the wheels of the vehicle entangled in those of another, which was partly loaded with tomatoes. The buggy was lifted high in the air and the tomatoes went "flying skyward" in every direction. The buggy and harness were considerably damaged.

BOUND OVER,

To Criminal Court On Charge Of Carrying Pistol.

Sam Morris, of Lafayette, Ky., was arrested Wednesday night on the charge of carrying concealed weapons by Officer Alsbrooks. Morris was on a street car and a revolver was protruding from his hip pocket. He was locked up. Thursday morning he was tried before Squire Jarrell and bound over to the Criminal Court.—Leaf-Chronicle.

The Kentucky Press Association will meet at Crab Orchard Springs next Tuesday for a session of three days. A delightful program has been prepared and all indications point to a very successful meeting, with a round of social pleasures taking the place of the usual junket.

RARE OPPORTUNITY

For Some One to Engage In Paying Business.

Mr. J. H. Eggleton has closed a contract with the Fitz-Simmons Auction Co. to sell all his property, including factory and thirteen cottages.

Owing to Mr. Eggleton's advanced age, his health has become so poor he is forced to take this step and to change climate as quick as possible. Mr. Eggleton is very reluctant about giving up the business just as he has gotten it to such a good paying basis, as the mail orders alone keep the factory very busy, and they have had to work at night to keep up with the orders. However, after consulting medical advice there is a chance to regain his health by a change of climate and a long rest. He also regrets to have to leave Hopkinsville and his nice home and his many friends. Mr. Eggleton has always done everything in his power for the very best interest of the city in every particular. He has been in the tobacco business 52 years and stands at the top of the ladder in his profession. This is a golden opportunity for some one to step right in the shoes of Mr. Eggleton and continue the business right along without any interruption whatever. Whosoever buys Mr. Eggleton's 85 per cent. interest in the business will be instructed in detail in every particular of the different formulas of all the celebrated brands of the company. All who may want a good home now is your chance to get it. Date of sale will be announced later.

MOONLIGHT PARTY

A Source of Pleasure to Sixty Young People.

A moonlight party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Rex, at their home near the city Wednesday night. The yard was illuminated and music was furnished by Witty's string band. There was dancing, hay riding and other kinds of merry-making. Ices and other delicious refreshments were served. About 30 couples enjoyed the occasion.

BRAKEMAN FELL ASLEEP FOREVER.

Tired Out He Was Overtaken by Slumber on the Track.

WAITING FOR TRAIN.

Tragic Fate of J. I. Martin, an L. & N. Brakeman at Crofton.

J. I. Martin, an L. & N. freight brakeman, was instantly killed at Crofton Thursday midnight by the Chicago and New Orleans limited No. 92. After Martin had thrown the switch for the purpose of letting his train in on the siding he sat down on the end of a cross tie to wait for the fast train to pass. He fell asleep and was struck and hurled forty or fifty feet.

Martin was head brakeman on first fifty-seven, south bound. It is said he fell asleep at New Empire about half an hour before the fatal accident at Crofton, but a fellow brakeman awoke him just in time to save him. He was about 25 years old and unmarried. His home was in Nashville.

Coroner Allensworth held an inquest yesterday morning and the body was turned over to an undertaker and shipped to Nashville yesterday afternoon.

BLACK LEG

Killing More Cattle in the Country.

Systematic anthrax, the disease among cattle better known as "Black Leg," has again developed in the county. Mr. Madison Major, who lives about three miles west of the city, lost three head this week. Dr. Bradley, the veterinary surgeon, has ordered virus and will inoculate other cattle of that neighborhood which have been exposed, in an effort to stop a spread of the disease. There is no cure for an animal afflicted, as they die in every case within eight or ten hours after being attacked.

MRS. PENELOPE CARTER

An Aged Woman, Passes Away Near Beverly.

Mrs. Penelope Carter died near Beverly Wednesday after a long illness, of a complication of diseases. She was 73 years old and had been a member of Little River Baptist church for about 50 years. The remains were interred near Lafayette Thursday.

CHAT OFF THE BAT.

It is now the I. K. League, with the accent on the I.

And after all we did not get to see Marre to-day. How can the fans stand the disappointment?

Kubitz, late manager of the Henderson team, was put in to umpire
the day of the collapse.

Bobby Barlow, the center-fielder, has gone home to Ironton, Ohio. He is a fast fielder and heavy hitter, and will not be out long.

Louis Schan, the big, good-natured catcher, was playing his first season.
He was the second best hitting catcher in the League, being excelled only by Lemon. He went to his home at Jeffersonville, Ind.

Simpson, the young pitcher, who began last month, was from Nicholasville, Ky., to which place he has returned. He pitched 8 games and won 4 of them.

Forrest Morris, the only native Hopkinsville man on the team, and the best batter in the League, will return to Evansville and resume work as a carpenter. He has six home runs to his credit this season and in several games made a hit every time he was at the bat.

Lou Rutledge, manager and catcher, who put the team on its winning basis, is an Evansville man and has returned to that city. He was a favorite with everybody in and out of the team.

Harry Meyers, first baseman and heavy hitter, and short stop Pat McAndrews signed Thursday with Princeton and left at once. Myers was with Hopkinsville last year and developed into one of the best men in the League.

Jack Desmond, the new pitcher, goes to Sheffield, Ala., and will finish out the season. He was the handsomest player in the team, with the figure of an athlete.

Wm. Henderson, who was formed out to us by Evansville for second baseman, returned to his home team.

Frank Brady, the little leftfielder, went to his home in Evansville with his wife and baby. He is a turner by trade and says he may not play any more, as he can make more money at his trade.

Herbert Perdue, who pitched 16 games for Hopkinsville, won 11 of them and had the distinction of pitching the last game the team played and winning from Vincennes.
He will probably go with Paducah or Vincennes.

Charlie Bomar, Hopkinsville's
heavy-hitting pitcher, has one home run and many other hits to his credit this season. He pitched such good ball that he won 9 out of the last 11 games he played. Cairo offered him $100, but he will think it over a few days before surrendering his freedom.

CONFUSION OF NAMES.

McKenzie Cannot Be Made a Postoffice—Should Be Quinine Jim.

The railroad station of the Tennessee Central road on the farm of the late Hon. Jas. A. McKenzie, is called McKeuzie, but owing to the fact that a postoffice of that name already exists in Lewis county, a postoffice cannot be established at the railroad depot. A Home Telephone exchange is now being put in at McKenzie with 50 or more subscribers and a place of that importance ought to have a postoffice. Confusion already has been caused by mail matter being addressed to McKenzie, which found its way to Lewis county. As the name is intended to honor the deceased statesman, we would suggest that the postoffice and station both be given the distinctive and appropriate name of "Quinine Jim."
There are many McKenzies in Kentucky, but there was only one Quinine Jim. What better name could be selected for the new postoffice?

Rev. S. R. Crockett of the Presbyterian Church went to Hopkinsville Sunday to fill the pulpit of Dr.
James E. Fogartie, while the Doctor filled the pulpit here. Dr. Fogartie is a man of ability and preached two good sermons while here. Rev.
H. C. McGill, of Christian county filled the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening.—Madisonville Graphic.
